Pay your respects to Benjamin Franklin's Funeral and Grave

"No other town burying its great man, ever buried more of itself than Philadelphia with Franklin," wrote Carl Van Doren in his biography of Franklin.

Admire the bell that proclaimed

By visiting the house where the first flag was made, we honor both Betsy Ross and her enduring creation — the Stars and Stripes.

In addition to these major historical attractions, your group will ride by City hall, take a walk in the Old Town Sector, stroll through Benjamin Franklin Boulevard, see Rodin Museum and the George Washington Monument, and for the movie buffs, you can even take a picture at the staircase where King Kong was filmed!
